Banned Food Policy

Last updated: 15/07/2025

Aims and outcomes

The aim of this policy is to help protect and prevent children from potential harmful risks from certain food items within Ultimate Kids services, these include allergies and choking risks.

Nuts

This food has been banned from Ultimate Kids services due to allergies.

There is a strict NO NUTS policy at Ultimate Kids. No food including any type of nut is allowed at any Ultimate Kids services. This includes staff as well.

Any items of food that contain nuts or traces of nuts, are to be confiscated from the child's procession and handed back to their adult at the end of the day. This is a good opportunity to remind them of the reason why they are not allowed and to not include them again.

Grapes

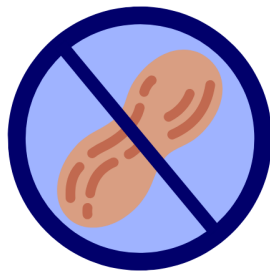

This food has been banned from Ultimate Kids services due to choking hazards.

There is a strict NO GRAPES policy at Ultimate Kids. No grapes are allowed at any Ultimate Kids service.

If a child brings grapes to an Ultimate Kids service they are to be confiscated from the child's procession and handed back to their adult at the end of the day. This is a good opportunity to remind them of the reason why they are not allowed and to not include them again.
